

Contents

1 My first section 2

1.1 My first subsection 2

Appendices 4

Appendix A Some Appendix 4

A section without a number

An introduction maybe.

1 My first section

1.1 My first subsection

I am citing lastname1 et al. (1999), see file: `fig/bib.bib`.

This is how you reference a figure: Figure 1.

This is how you reference a subfigure: Figure 2(b).

This is how you reference a table: Table 1.

Now for a quote:

Some quote.

– some person

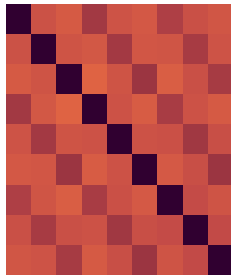

Figure 1: Figure. Words.

Table 1: Table. Words.

location	p.value
57	0.0013

Table 2: Table. Words.

location	p.value
57	0.0013
	0.16558

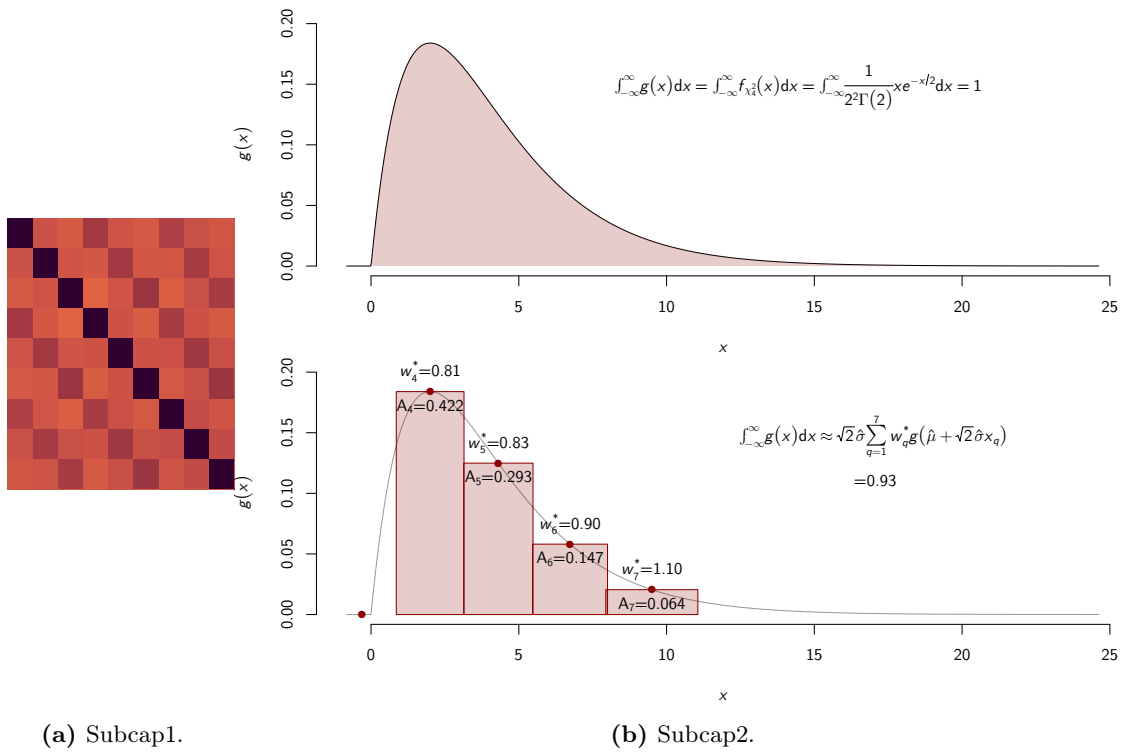

Figure 2: Bottom caption.

Appendix A. Some Appendix

$$\sum_{i=1}^n i^2 = \frac{n(n+1)(2n+1)}{6}$$

References

fn1 lastname1, fn2 lastname2, and fn3 lastname3. A simple method of maths. Statistics in Maths, 101(11):1234–1239, 1999.